

I believe it is the charge of the FCC to ensure that the media serves the best interests of a democratic society. I can see no way in which further consolidation, cross-ownership, and control of our media into fewer hands serves these ends in any way.

Please, work to diversify and expand media ownership and control, not limit it.